

Was the working class better off under the Nazis?

Before 1933 workers supported socialists, Nazis needed to control them Workers had to join the DAF Headed by Dr. Robert Ley They had to work on government projects Employers and employees were part of the DAF, and it settled disputes between them DAF Beauty of Labor Persuaded employers to improve working conditions Strength through Joy Organized leisure time for workers (operas, swimming, theatre, PE, parades, shows, circuses, holidays, etc.) Reich Labor Service (RAD) All 18-25 year old men had to do 6 months work service It consisted of manual labor, with low pay Used to indoctrinate young adults Some people were thankful, some weren't

About the Author

Source: <http://crampuppy.com>