

How much opposition was there to Nazi rule?

Coup- Hardly any None in first 10 years of rule Only in the last year, when the effect of war was causing the regime to collapse ; Underground Resistance and Opposition - Not a lot Anti government leaflets Pastor Gruber helped Jews Sabotage Church resistance ; Passive resistance and non-cooperation People refused to join the party People refused to 'Heil Hitler' Underground political meetings were held ; Private Grumbling - Widespread Not in public Anti Nazi jokes ; Why didn't grumbling become open opposition Germans were afraid Opposition was divided People did not know what was going on People were pleased with the Nazis Quibbles were minor Nazis did drop unpopular policies 'We did vote for them' No organized opposition

About the Author

Source: <http://crampuppy.com>