

The terms of the Treaty of Versailles

Territory Alsace Lorraine to France Saar goes to France for 15 years - then plebiscite Left banks of Rhine occupied by allies, right bank demilitarised Poland independent - given West Prussia for access to the sea. Danzig - ruled by League Of Nations - free city Finland, Lithuania, Latvia and Estonia made independent Czechoslovakia to be independent Austria and Hungary made separate countries Yugoslavia created as home for the Slavs Italy given South Tyrol and Istria Romania, Greece, Belgium and Denmark all received land Colonies German Empire Tanganyika was given to Britain The Cameroons to France South-West Africa to South Africa Pacific Islands to Japan Turkish Empire Palestine, Jordan, and Iraq to Britain Syria and Lebanon to France Arms 100,000 men only Guns, weapons to be melted down Germany Navy only 36 ships - no submarines No air Force No Anschluss (Joining of Germany and Austria) Blame War Guilt Clause - Article 231 - Germany had to accept responsibility for starting the war. Reparations (set in 1921) Also known as indemnity 6,600 million pounds had to be paid to the allies

About the Author

Source: <http://crampuppy.com>